HOLIDAY OPEN HOUSE

Please mark your calendars for Sunday, December 8th, from 2—4 p.m. to attend our annual Open House. Come meet our feline residents, visit with friends and enjoy some refreshments.

Again this year we will be collecting dry and canned food for area animals in need. Treats and sturdy toys are always welcome as well to make their holiday a little bit brighter.

You can even do a little shopping with Silpada Designs to add some sparkle to your holidays or someone on your list.

Pam Case, Pet Communicator, will also be available for appointments ($25) from 1—5. She also reads people (birth time and date required), not just pets. Call now for your appointment!

PHASE 1 CONSTRUCTION IS COMPLETE!

Now, on to Phase 2!

PAWS IN THE PARK

Even though we had a very rainy day, we moved all the activities into the shell of our new building and had a good time anyway. The Jack Russells raced in the rain and didn't mind one bit! We had wonderful hot dogs grilled by Arvest Grill Masters and a fantastic demonstration by Apollo, the drug dog, and his handler, Troy Newell.

MEMORIAL DOG BONZ

Our first order has arrived. Thank you, Donnie and Regina for mounting them on the ARF Park fence so that everyone could see them and the various options available (picture or clip art). The bonz are 9" x 20". We are preparing another order. Bonz are $75 each. Order forms are available online or at ARF. Payment due when we place the order.

OUR NEWEST RESIDENTS

Polly (top) and Becky (bottom) are sisters, both spayed, and would like to be adopted together.

Simba (top right) is 3 months old. Bleu (bottom) is 3 months old. Sugar Bear (top left) is 2 1/2 months old. All three are neutered and ready for their forever homes.

THE PERFECT KITTEN

The first thing you notice is her sweet, fluffy-cheeked face, the silky, tri-colored fur, and the shining eyes within that cloud of calico, fixed on you with a steady, wondering stare. As you are captured in her gaze, this tiny feline confection favors you with a delicate meow--and moves toward you.

And then, the rest is revealed—this kitten was born with no paws, neither front nor back. Yet she stands there before you, in bright and unblinking innocence. In an instant, you're fighting the sting of insistent tears--not due to pity, so much, as to the overwhelming preciousness of this little girl, of a life so in need of safety and nurture.

No more than a month old, and abandoned in a barn, she was found by someone who cared enough to rescue her from a very dubious future. Compassionate hands delivered her to the SPCA, who, since none of their foster homes were available, transferred her to ARF to give her the life she deserves.

Having already conquered what must have been early struggles, this brave, determined little girl was named Victoria, "Tori" for short. And her kitten-sized victories continue. In foster care, she is doing well--eating, growing and gaining in stability of movement and agility. Full of energy, she toddles around, playing with her squeaky mice and jingle balls. She even capers, just as would any other kitten her age, practicing to her own degree of ability the techniques of stalking, anticipatory rump-wiggling, and pouncing. Curious and spunky, she has an exceedingly joyful heart, constantly proclaimed by the puppylike, happy wagging of
